HOWL (Helping Others While Learning)

"Reaching for the Stars, Helping others along the way"

School Policies:

1. No gum or candy
2. Ask for a pass whenever leaving class.
3. Be on time for class.
4. Attendance is important

Classroom Policies:

1. Have pride in what you do!
2. Come with a positive attitude.
3. Don't pollute. Pick up after yourself.
4. Be organized
 - A. A pen or pencil is required.
 - B. A three ring binder with a section for HOWL notes is required.
 - C. Another section for handouts is required (A Table of Contents should be organized)
 - D. A folder for loose papers is advisable.
 - E. Make a daily entry with the date, scramble, and daily notes each day.
 - F. Floppy disks, pen drive, colored pencils & crayons will come in handy.
5. Lockers and drinks are not allowed during class times. Go between classes! If you must go, then you will be asked to sign the "Nudge List"
6. Lavatory passes at scheduled times or before class starts. If you must go at another time, then you will be asked to sign the "Nudge List"
7. Conduct:
 - ☞ When a Lab Situation has been started, if you interrupt or act inappropriately, points will be deducted from your grade for that lab.
 - ☞ If a Focus Time has been started, everyone is to stop whatever he or she is doing and immediately listen to important directions. Points will be deducted from your grade for any distractions during this time! Inappropriate behaviors at any other times will be asked to sign the "Nudge List" at the front of the room. Students with their names appearing a couple of times will have their parents called to remind them of appropriate behavior.
8. If you copy from a book, a computer, or another student, you will receive NO POINTS for your grade. Parents will be notified.
