

Project Teamwork Wins Award!!

May 3rd, 2006 at Northeastern University, the Project Teamwork students of PCIS received the Darryl Williams Award at the Human Rights Leadership Forum for their work with anti-bullying. These students won the banner located at the main office for their Boston Globe Funpages, video commercials, and classroom outreach lessons. The award ceremony was led by Steve Burton and students were able to interact with Ben Watson and Deion Branch of the New England Patriots. Congratulations go to:

Below: Students and teachers celebrate upon hearing about the award.

